Sir,

Please refer to your letter no. FDP/DFR/2606/154/60-61 dt 18-7-60 on the subject stated supra.

I am directed to state that it appears to Govt that a learned view has been taken of the case and the impression it has created in the mind of the applicant that his encroachment on the land has been generously condoned and he is allowed to go with it easily.

While it is the intention of Govt to go reader

Sir,

Subject:- Encroachment in an area of 2 acres and 10 gunthas in Jagdal F.S.No.241 Regularisation of in favour of encroacher Shri G.C.Yallatti of Banhatti.

Reference:- Your No.AFD-101-FGN-60 of 1.9.1960.

The regularisation of encroachment was recommended as per Bombay G.R. A.& F.D. No.FDM-1054- of 7.3.1955. According to para 7 of the G.R. penal occupancy price of Rs.5/- per guntha should be charged or the Deputy Commissioner may reduce this price in suitable cases of poor encroachers. In view of the above provision, the Deputy Commissioner, Bijapur will have to recover the penal occupancy price of Rs.5/- per guntha or any suitable reduced rate that he considered necessary before handing over the area to the encroacher. In the circumstances, there appears
